

I strongly oppose allowing the expansion of ownership by existing media companies. We are already being subjected to "managed" news by a limited set of major conservative networks. Talk to a few ordinary people in Oklahoma or East Tennessee to see how narrow is their view of current events owing to the past ownership consolidations.